First Year Research Experience

As a first-year student enrolled in a Leadership Alliance Minority-Serving Institution, you are eligible to apply to participate in the Summer Research Early Identification Program (SR-EIP) through our First Year Research Experience (FYRE) application. In addition to all of the benefits of the SR-EIP, you will also be able to:

- Work on a project that has been designed specifically for a first-year student
- Complete an abbreviated application focused on your coursework and research interests with the assistance of faculty or The Leadership Alliance coordinator at your institution
- Participate in a cohort of undergraduate students conducting similar research
- Get matched with a mentor to guide you through networking at The Leadership Alliance National Symposium (LANS)
- Students will participate/present their research at LANS

Eligibility

To be eligible for the FYRE program, you must:

- Be enrolled as a full-time student at a Leadership Alliance Sending Institution. (see list on the front)
- Have freshman status at the time of your application
- Be in good academic standing with a GPA of 3.0 or higher
- Be a documented U.S. citizen or non-citizen national, or permanent resident in possession of an alien registration receipt card (I-551) or other legal document of such status at the time of application
- Have interest in pursuing graduate study toward a Ph.D. or MD-PhD

How to Apply

- The application will open on November 1, 2025
- Contact your faculty members for guidance as you develop your application
- Contact your Leadership Alliance coordinator. To find the coordinator on your campus scan the QR code.

Application
deadline:
Feb 3, 2026
